We ask that you please file your I800 as soon as possible and then send an email confirmation to your IAS including your tracking number to confirm that you have filed for immigration.

When approved, you will receive what is called the I-800 provisional approval letter through mail, and an NVC letter through email. Once received, you will need to send these to your IAS so the country can apply for the DS-260 to begin your child's visa process.
