NOTICE	Remarks:
Information that USCIS may have concerning your Form I-800A, Application for Determination of Suitability to Adopt a Child From a Convention Country, is protected

Determination of Suitability to Adopt a Child From a Convention Country, is protected from disclosure under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a. USCIS generally may not disclose this information to your adoption service provider without your consent. If you want USCIS to be able to disclose this information to your adoption service provider, you may give this consent by signing Form I-800A, Supplement 2. You do not need to sign Form I-800A, Supplement 2, in order to file Form I-800A.

Provide the below information about your primary adoption service provider who is the accredited or temporarily accredited agency, or approved person who is responsible under 22 CFR Part 96.14 for the six adoption services defined in 22 CFR Part 96.2, and for supervising and being responsible for supervised providers where used. If a primary adoption service provider has not yet been identified, provide the name and address of the adoption service provider who is the accredited agency, as defined in 22 CFR Part 96.2, who either prepared and approved your home study, or reviewed and approved your home study, or the Public Domestic Authority who both prepared and approved your home study.

Pursuant to the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, and 8 CFR Part 204.302, and in order to assist USCIS in the adjudication of Form 1-800A.
